

Cleveland Elementary School

At a Glance 2008 - 2009

Cleveland Elementary School is a Kindergarten through fifth grade program. It aims to increase academic achievement, ensure academic equity, and to provide a safe and secure learning environment for all students. School data shows that African American and Latino students perform about 68% lower in English than other groups.

Volunteer needs include: helping students with math, reading and writing, after school homework help, library help, and playground activities.
